Betterment Advisor Solutions

A smarter lending solution for your clients

In partnership with The Bancorp, we're helping advisors offer a Securities-Backed Line of Credit (SBLOC) that gives clients fast, flexible access to cash—without derailing their long-term investments or triggering a sizable tax bill.

Securities-Backed Line of Credit (SBLOCs) are offered by The Bancorp Bank, N.A., Member FDIC, to Betterment clients. Betterment is not a bank. See more at the end of this brochure.

Having the SBLOC in your wealth management toolkit enables you to provide clients with a liquidity option that preserves AUM and your investment strategies. It also means you can proactively plan for clients' current and future cash needs. Whether it's college tuition, emergency home/car repairs, or financing business expenses, your clients can use the SBLOC for almost any purpose.¹

Benefits for clients:

- Financial flexibility in their wealth management plans
- Eliminating the need to sell off portfolio assets that can trigger a tax event
- Automated application and underwriting
- Consolidate their current high interest debt (credit cards, car loans, etc) at more competitive interest rates
- Automated emails regarding application and funding status
- Immediate access to credit line after approval
- Easily disburse funds with fee-free credit line checks, ACH, and same-day wires through The Bancorp

Benefits for financial professionals:

- Retain investment strategies and AUM
- Saves you time and effort needed to rebalance a client's portfolio
- Build flexibility into your wealth management plan with a timely source of liquidity
- Manage both sides of a client's balance sheet
- Introduce proactive debt management into your services
- Increase client satisfaction and trust in your advice

Why we chose The Bancorp as our partner

We only work with the best. For over 20 years, The Bancorp has been a stable, trusted provider in banking. In 2004, they became the first bank to offer to offer SBLOCs to independent and registered financial professionals—empowering them to compete with the resources of larger institutions. Since then, their SBLOC has helped over 60,000 advisors provide client liquidity while preserving AUM. Those numbers speak for themselves.

Always a partner. Never a competitor.™

The Bancorp develops banking solutions for wealth management and, unlike other competitors, does not compete with financial professionals for clients' assets.

Client before firm mentality

Their goal is to preserve clients' portfolio assets with high-quality collateral requirements and daily market and collateral monitoring.

TALEA[®] loan automation platform

The Bancorp proprietary loan automation system provides a streamlined application process and fast drawing power simulations based on portfolio assets.

Everything you need to know about the SBLOC
